

Happy New Year 2007

Dear Saints,

Carolyn and I want you to know that we are praying that all of you will have a blessed new year. We're somewhat reluctant to say happy New Year because we know that God doesn't promise us a happy life though He does want us to have joy in the midst of whatever our circumstances happen to be. We have learned that often it is the difficulties we face that draw us into a more intimate relationship with our Lord. As we reflect on the last year, we are amazed at God's gracious provision for us. We count ourselves to have been blessed because we have had to rely totally on God for our sustenance in ways we have never had to previously. God has shown Himself both able and willing to provide for our needs. Also, He has blessed us with meeting many of you as we've traveled to other churches in sharing God's call on our lives to minister to children in Africa.

We want to thank each of you in the part you have played in our lives this year. Also, we ask that you pray for us that all that needs to be accomplished for our departure would be accomplished. Pray that our remaining monthly support commitments would come in so that we can get to the field. There are several new very young children at Haven of Hope adding to the burden on the mothers at the home and they really do need our help now. We are also cognizant of the fact that for every month we are delayed there are children on the streets that are not surviving. We are very anxious to be there reaching these children for Jesus. Pray for us to rest in God's timing and we'll pray for you during the coming year. If any of you have a special prayer request please let us know so we can pray for you.

God bless you all this coming year.
